

Yellow Bike (EP, 2006)

Acoustic solo collection, live-in-the-studio. Expanded to eight original tracks for this 2006 re-release; the first release (2004) was under title "Solo Guitar & Vocals." Includes solo versions of six tracks that appear with added production on the highly-acclaimed Quietly There album, plus two new songs, "In This New Year (Instruments of Peace)" and "The Edge of Tedjhara."

Quietly There (2004)

Nominated for BEST ACOUSTIC ALBUM by the 2005 Madison Area Music Awards

Thirteen originals plus one Lennon & McCartney song. Material ranges from lively band arrangements to guitar solos and intimate ballads beautifully accented with cello and harp. This album has received strong reviews (U.S. and abroad) and radio airplay on four continents. Highlights Tracy's diverse musical influences.

Second Wind (2002)

Nominated for BEST ACOUSTIC ALBUM by the 2004 Madison Area Music Awards

Tracy's debut full-length album, featuring thirteen original tracks. Lightly produced with a very live, acoustic feel, with Tracy's vocals and her own performances on guitar, cello, piano and hammered dulcimer, plus appearances by several guest musicians (guitar, percussion, mandolin, backing vocals).

All albums produced by Randy Green, Randy's Recording, Madison, WI
