

Drive for Miles

(c) 2003 Music/lyrics by Tracy Jane Comer

[NOTE: Sounding key is B major; I play on guitar with altered tuning (CGDGBE) and capo IV]

INTRO: B+2 E+2 B+2 E+2

B+2 E+2
Running a little late, and the tank's a little low

B+2 E+2 B+2 E+2
But I'm not in a hurry, I'm just singing to the radio

B+2 E+2
Cars move all around me, stepping up the pace

B+2 E+2 B+2 E+2
And I cruise down the slow lane, lost in my own space

D#m+6 C#9no3 B+2 E+2
And I can drive for miles and never see what's all around me

B+2 E F#/E E

G#m
I'll take a drive on the back roads,

C#9no3
so I can take some time to think things through

G#m+2 C#7
Put some miles between myself and all these things I've got to do

E E/F#
Look for signs and try to see

B+2 E+2 B+2 E F#/E E
what they say to me

B+2 E+2 B+2
It's just like me to miss the road despite all the signs along the way

B+2 E+2 B+2 E+2
Is it poor navigation or just lack of attention that's to blame

D#m+6 EM9
My head's too far up in the clouds my sister used to say

G#m+2 C#9no3 B+2 E+2
Some things never change I guess I'll always be that way

D#m+6 C#7
Cause I can drive for miles and never know

B+2 E+2 B+2 E F#/E E
that I'm on the wrong road

G#m
And when you're at that fork the stars would say

C#9no3

half the time you'll go the right way

G#m+2

C#7

But I can't seem to meet those odds, even on my best of days

D#m+6

E

But maybe I'm just wasting time looking for some dotted line

G#m+2

C#7

E

I've heard it said that there is more than one right way to go sometimes

E/F#

B+2

E+2

And maybe I'll decide today The road I'm on is OK

B+2

E+2

B+2

E+2

B+2

E

F#/E

E

It's OK yeah La la la la la la la It's OK
